The Parent PLUS Loan Special Circumstances form is available for dependent students to request an increase in the Federal Unsubsidized Loan if their parent(s) is ineligible to apply for the Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan.

The following circumstances would declare a parent as ineligible:

- Parent(s) is a/are non-U.S. citizen(s) or Permanent Resident(s)
- Parent(s) has/have a bankruptcy/court judgement which prevents further debt
- Parent(s) only form of support is supplemental income (e.g., SSI, disability, etc.)

A parent's refusal to apply for a Parent PLUS Loan is NOT considered a special circumstance.

Student Name | Student ID | Phone Number (include area code)

List the parent(s) included on the 2026-2027 FAFSA:

Parent 1 Full Name | Parent 1 Date of Birth

Parent 2 Full Name | Parent 2 Date of Birth

Choose one of the following options and provide the required supporting documentation as an attachment:

☐ My parent(s) is a/are non-U.S. citizen(s) or Permanent Resident(s)

☐ My parent(s) has/have a recent (7 years or less) bankruptcy and/or court judgement which prevents further debt, or is/are in default or overpayment on a federal debt.
Required Documentation: Attach a copy of court/debt paperwork with date.

☐ My parent(s) only form of support is supplemental income (e.g., SSI, disability, etc.)
Required Documentation: Attach a copy of their most recent statement of income; statement must be less than one year old.

Other (detailed explanation and supporting documentation required):

I certify the information provided above is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand this information, if approved, may only result in an increase to my Unsubsidized Loan due to denial of the Parent PLUS Loan for exceptional circumstances.
