

We are excited to announce the formation of the UIW Cardinal Marching Band beginning with the Fall 2009 semester.

The creation of our new football team, which will begin play next semester, has jumpstarted our university marching band program. The new Director of Bands will soon be selected and announced to the community.

The University of the Incarnate Word has strong musical ensembles. In addition to the UIW Cardinal Marching Band, musical ensembles include:

UIW Cardinal Chorale

- o 70-80 voice primary vocal ensemble
- o Performed at Carnegie Hall, and at the NBA All-Star Game
- o Choir for two commercial CDs under a Christian record label
- o Various TV and radio performances

UIW Jazz Ensemble

- o Only USA university jazz band invited to the Montreux Festival in 2009
- o Invited to the North Sea Jazz Festival in Rotterdam in 2009

Orchestra of the Incarnate Word

- o Comprised of students and community players
- o Performed at TMEA and the 2008 San Antonio Heritage Day program

Madrigal Singers

- o Eight voice chamber ensemble
- o Numerous TV and radio performances

Interested in learning more about the new UIW Cardinal Marching Band?

Join us on Tuesday, June 2nd, at 7:00 p.m.

Palestrina Hall (2nd Floor – Fine Arts Building)

RSVP by calling (210) 805-1244

Discover the many opportunities to showcase your musical talents as a student at UIW!

Scholarship money is available for section leaders.

For more information, call Professor William Gokelman at (210) 829-3848 or email gokelman@uiwtx.edu.