The University of the Incarnate Word recognizes the academic achievement of freshman applicants by offering merit-based aid. Academic transcripts and ACT and/or SAT scores are evaluated during the admissions process, at which time eligibility for a merit award is determined.

Did you know that you may be eligible for additional gift aid through need-based programs administered by the Office of Financial Assistance? These need-based funds require that you complete the 2014-2015 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). You may complete the 2014-2015 FAFSA as early as January 1, 2014. We encourage you to complete this process!
