

Directions: Starting on the circles, draw a line to connect to the circle with the picture that matches the question to its correct answer drawing. The lines will pass through a letter to reveal the answer to the riddle below.

1

Jane the Turtle was collecting snails to bring home. She collected seven snails but accidentally lost three. How many snails does Jane the Turtle have left?

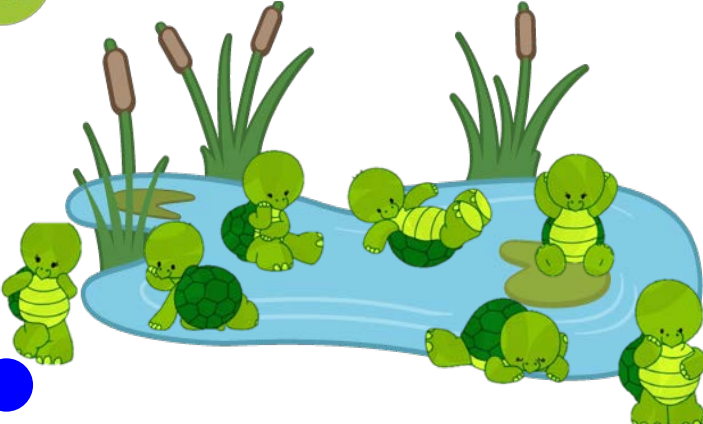

E

G

2

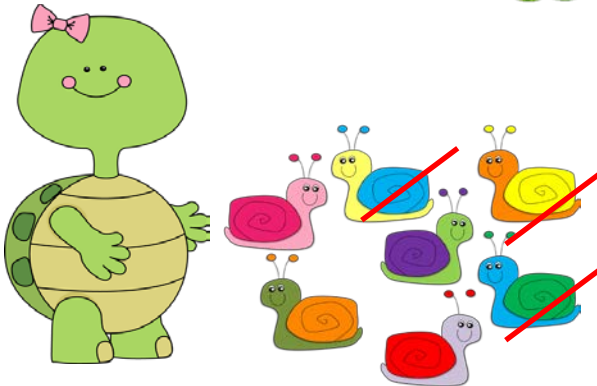

John the Turtle has three crickets, five grasshoppers, and two dragonflies. How many insects does John the Turtle have in all?

G

3

Five turtles were playing in a pond. Two more turtles joined them. How many turtles are there in all?

What has to be broken before you can use it?

An _____ !