We will distribute Commencement tickets, caps and gowns and will provide the instructions about the Commencement ceremonies. You must clear all holds on your account by April 1, 2016 to receive your tickets. You may not participate in the Commencement ceremonies if you have a hold.

If you cannot attend the Finale and will send someone in your place, you must provide written authorization to release your tickets. You must list them by name in your written authorization to us. You may download the form from the Graduation Finale link on the Registrar’s Office web page and fax that form to the Registrar’s Office. We will not have phones or fax at the Finale and cannot receive your receive authorizations there. Those picking up your tickets will need to provide a picture ID.

To release your tickets, we must receive your written authorization in the Registrar’s Office by April 22, 2016.
