Did you know...?

Because of its magnificent red feathers, the cardinal was named after the Catholic cardinals, who wear robes of similar color. Symbolically, the cardinal is a testament that no matter how bleak or hopeless a situation may seem, there's always a light at the end of the tunnel. Protective and energetic, cardinals encourage these same qualities in others and, thus, are a force to be reckoned with when defending territory.

SPOTLIGHT

To the Victors Go the Spoils

On Sept. 24, the SCLA hosted a ping pong tournament. David Ballenger placed first and received a 20-dollar Best Buy gift card. Ryan Martin and Jacob, the second- and third-place winners, were awarded 10- and 5-dollar Best Buy gift cards.

Here Comes the Bride...

The UIW Department of Theatre Arts' rendition of Stephen Massicotte's romantic play Mary's Wedding opens tonight at 8 p.m. and will continue production until Oct. 11.

This one-act, two-person play will star junior Lucy Petters and freshman Garret Anderson as female and male leads Mary and Charlie.

Set during World War I with a classic Romeo and Juliet feel, Mary's Wedding is a "poignant play that deals with the cost of war," as stated in the production notes.

Call (210) 829-3200 or visit www.uiw.edu/theatre for tickets and show times.
