

UNIVERSITY OF THE INCARNATE WORD
FALL 2008 LEARNING COMMUNITY OFFERINGS

Learning Communities are dynamic interactive and integrated curricular programs. Learning communities link courses into blocks that share common themes to create an interactive learning partnership between the courses. Students enrolled in these grouped courses become a sharing community; along with their instructors, they collaborate and learn together. All learning becomes relevant and experiential in our integrated world of knowledge.

Learning Community offerings satisfy First-Year General Education requirements, Honors Program Tracks, and program-specific clusters for students who have already decided upon their majors.

Learning Communities:

- Are integrate "student-centered" programs that address students' needs;
- Boost academic confidence and performance;
- Integrate services and strategies for the UIW learning experience to be a successful one;
- Foster achievement and sound academic performance.
