Living costs:	Compared to many places in the UK, for example, London, Leeds is not an expensive place to live. However, to maintain a reasonable standard of living you'll require approximately £1,015 per month for accommodation, local travel, food and entertainment. To help you calculate how much money you may require we suggest you read the useful information on living costs in the UK produced by the UK Council for International Student Affairs (UKCISA) or use the free online International Student Calculator .
Local Information
Horsforth:	Horsforth is a town within the City of Leeds situated approximately 5 miles north west of the city centre. Horsforth boasts a village atmosphere steeped in history, is home to Leeds Bradford International airport and excellent transport links to the city centre. The bustling Leeds city centre is only 15 minutes away.

Leeds:

Leeds is based in West Yorkshire and widely recognised as the regional capital of the Yorkshire and Humber region. With a population of approximately 750,000 Leeds is approximately 2 hours by train to London, 1 hour and 30 minutes to Liverpool, 1 hour to Manchester and Sheffield and 30 minutes to York. Leeds is also in the heart of the UK with the stunning sights of the Lake District National Park approximately 2 hours away, and the Yorkshire Dales, the North York Moors and Peak District National Parks within about an hour's drive of the city.

Leeds is internationally recognised as a major city of learning and education, and is home to approximately 100,000 students, including thousands of international students.

Leeds City Centre is compact and boasts having 'something for everyone' with over 120 shops, restaurants and bars under one roof at Trinity Leeds, Victoria Quarter and Victoria Gate. Leeds Kirkgate market was built in 1857, is home to a charming blend of old and new and is the largest covered markets in Europe. The Corn Exchange, built in 1864, is host to many independent retailers but still retains its original Victorian architecture.

Leeds City Centre is also home to the City Varieties and Grand Theatre and Opera house, there is also Carriageworks theatre and West Yorkshire Playhouse – which all host touring musicals, plays and pantomimes. There are plenty of places to see live music and gigs at the O2 Academy and the 'Best New Venue in the world in 2014' – Leeds Arena, our new 13,000-seat amphitheatre auditorium.
