

Bachelor of Music in Composition

College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Bachelor of Music (B.M.) in Composition at the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences at the University of the Incarnate Word is a professional degree that prepares students for careers as composers and/or for graduate studies in composition and related fields such as film composing and music theory. Successful completion of this degree requires that the candidate give a public recital of his or her original compositions. To enter the program, students must be able to read notated music and demonstrate strong technical proficiency in voice or on an instrument. Composition students at UIW concentrate on concert music, although instruction in film, popular, and experimental styles is also available through courses in electronic music.

QUICK FACTS

- The B.M. in Composition program at UIW has hosted regional conferences of the Society for Composers, Inc., Region VI, and the Texas Chapter of the National Association of Composers, U.S.A.
- Award-winning faculty members are affiliated with ASCAP, BMI, SCI, NACUSA, and the Composers Alliance of San Antonio, and their work has been supported by grants from the National Endowment of the Arts and New Music USA, among others.
- Recent alumni have pursued graduate degrees in composition, released commercial albums and music videos, won composition competitions, participated in prestigious residencies, and have been featured in online and print journals, including Texas Public Radio and The New York Times.
- Careers supported by the B.M. in Composition include composer of concert and art music of all styles, commercial music, film and video game music, teacher of composition and music theory.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission to the B.M. in Composition program is a two-fold process: (1) admission to the University of the Incarnate Word and (2) admission, through audition, to the Department of Music.

Students who, at the time of their entrance audition, are deemed unprepared for freshman-level MUAP lessons or MUSI courses may be placed in one or more of the following courses: MUAP 1144, MUSI 1311, MUSI 1381, MUSI 1100, MUSI 1300. These courses are prerequisites to the pursuit of a music degree at UIW and are not counted as part of the degree or as free electives.
