

Georgen Guerrero is the Criminal Justice Department Chair and Professor at the University of the Incarnate Word. He earned his Ph.D. in Criminal Justice with a specialization in Criminology from Sam Houston State University. He earned a master's degree in Criminal Justice from Texas State University and a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice with a specialization in Law Enforcement and Police Science from Sam Houston State University. His areas of expertise include criminology, deviant behavior, penology, and ethics. Dr. Guerrero's research interests focus primarily on incarcerated populations, juvenile populations, and unethical practices by criminal justice practitioners. His research has led to several publications in the areas of criminology, penology, and juvenile justice. As a practitioner, Dr. Guerrero has 20 years of field experience working with several criminal justice agencies in various supervisory capacities.