Refer to the instructions below to transfer your/your parent(s)' tax information directly into the FAFSA, request a Tax Return Transcript, or request a Verification of Non-filing Letter from the IRS. Special situations which may require additional documentation are listed below.

Transferring Tax Information into the FAFSA

- Log into your FAFSA at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>.
- Choose the 2020-2021 FAFSA and click on Make FAFSA Corrections.
- Navigate to Financial Information and follow the prompts to link to the IRS.
- Check the box to transfer the information and click on Transfer Now, or the information will not be imported.
- Repeat the process for the student or parent, as necessary.
- Be sure to submit the updates to your FAFSA before logging off.
- Revised FAFSA results will be received by the Office of Financial Assistance in 5-10 business days.
- If the data received after transferring your tax information into the FAFSA indicates that you or your parent(s) amended the tax return, a signed copy of the 1040X will be required. In some cases, the changes were made directly by the IRS, and you/your parent(s) will have a letter from the IRS indicating this change.

Requesting a Tax Return Transcript from the IRS

- If you/your parent are unable to locate a copy of the Tax Return, you may request one from the IRS.
- Go to <http://www.irs.gov> and click on Get Your Tax Record.
- Click on Get Transcript by Mail, and follow the prompts using the primary tax-payer's information.
- Choose Tax Return Transcript as the requested form, and 2018 as the tax year. Enter the student's ID number in the Customer File Number box. The transcript will be mailed to the address on the tax return. We are unable to accept an "Account Transcript," as it does not contain all the required information.
- Repeat the process for the student or parent, as necessary.
- If you or your parent(s) amended the 2018 tax return, a signed copy of the 1040X will be required. In some cases, the changes were made directly by the IRS, and you/your parent(s) will have a letter from the IRS indicating this change.

Requesting a Verification of Non-Filing Letter from the IRS

- Download IRS form 4506T-EZ from <http://www.irs.gov>
- Fill in items 1-4 and enter the student's ID number in box 5b, Customer File Number.
- Check Box 7 and enter 12/31/2018 in Box 9.
- Mail or fax the completed form to the address/number indicated in the 4506T instructions.
- If your parent(s) worked in 2018, they must also submit copies of all sources of income.
 - Income documents may include: W2s, 1099s, Social Security/Disability statements, Interest Income, etc.
- The letter will be mailed to the address on the 4506T within 5-10 business days.

Special Situations (may require additional documentation):

- If your parents are separated but not divorced, they may still both be required to provide tax information.
- If your parents are married but filed taxes separately, you cannot transfer their information into the FAFSA. Both will need to provide signed copies of their returns or request a Tax Return Transcript and turn in a copy.
- Biological/adoptive parents who are unmarried but living together must both provide tax information on the FAFSA as well as Tax Returns for the verification process.
- If your custodial parent is remarried, the step-parent must provide tax information on the FAFSA and will be required to submit a Tax Return for the verification process, if they filed separately.
- If your parents were married and filed a joint return in 2018, but are now divorced, you may submit a Parent Marital Status form and a Wage and Income statement from the IRS to remove the non-custodial parent's income from the FAFSA.
