Instructions

Your dependency status may be evaluated if your family circumstances have resulted in a dissolution of the family and you are unable to live or be supported by your legal parents. You must be prepared to demonstrate that you are self-sufficient and be able to document why your parents should not be required to contribute to your education.

Circumstances that do not merit a request for independent status are:

1. Parents refusing to contribute to the student's education.
2. Parents unwilling to provide information on the application or for verification.
3. Parents not claiming the student as a dependent for income tax purposes.
4. A choice made by the student to move out of his/her parent's home and be financially independent.

Step 1: Required Documentation

The following documents must be submitted with this form for consideration of your request for independent status. Failure to include all requested documentation will result in automatic denial of your override request.

1. 2021-2022 FAFSA

Complete the 2021-2022 FAFSA, without parental information, and electronically sign using your FSA ID.

2. Tax Documentation

- No, I had no 2019 earned income. Submit a verification of non-filing letter for 2019 from the IRS

3. Personal Statement

A one to two-page personal statement of appeal indicating the reason for your request for independent status. Provide specific examples of the events that led to your estrangement from your parents.

Your statement must also include the following:

- a. Description of the history of your relations with both biological/legal parents. Include stepparents if they are relevant to your issues with your parent(s); and
- b. Where and with whom you lived from the time you stopped living with your parents through now; and
- c. Who provided your financial support from the time you stopped living with your parents until now. If you did not receive any financial support from others, explain how you supported yourself (i.e., job, financial aid, food stamps, etc.).

4. Two Letters of Support

Have you previously been approved for independent status at UIW?

Yes. Letters of support are on file with the Office of Financial Assistance. Proceed to Student Information.

These letters must be typed on official letterhead or with an attached business card and include the following: their signature, their current phone number, how they know you, and their knowledge of your situation.

- a. The first letter must be from an unbiased professional such as a doctor, psychiatrist, pastor, teacher, employer, high school guidance counselor, attorney, or police officer.
