ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Acknowledgments are a courteous way of recognizing people to whom the student is indebted for guidance, assistance, or special aid. In this section you will want to formally thank your project supervisor individually by name and title, other nursing practice faculty who helped you, and, depending on privacy or anonymity guidelines, you may mention your clinical mentor and others who assisted you in the clinical setting. Then, thank your colleagues, family members, friends and editors.

It is best practice to secure permission of those to be cited in the acknowledgments.

The acknowledgments page should be prepared according to the following instructions.

Center the heading ACKNOWLEDGMENTS in capital letters 1.75 inches from the top of the page (the fourth space down from the top margin).

On the third line (a triple space) below that heading, begin entering the text. Indent each paragraph 0.5 inch. Double-space the text.

The name must be identical to that appearing on the abstract and title page of your project and is formatted in title case (i.e. upper- and lower-case letters).
