The Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Communication Arts at the School of Media and Design uses a unique blend of theory-driven and experienced-based classes where students acquire the necessary knowledge and skills.

The program offers multiple concentrations with seemingly infinite career opportunities. The Media and Culture concentration focuses on ethics, persuasion, and rhetoric in movies, culture, and in communication. Students will study perceptions and analyze messages across communication platforms.

The goals of the program are to cultivate students’ imagination and creativity through mastery of technical skills needed to become effective professionals in the field of communications; to create an environment fostering the exploration of diverse perspectives and encourage students to use their skills and resources to serve their community and society, so that they are prepared to participate competently, confidently, and ethically as concerned and enlightened citizens.
