Bachelor of Arts in Communication Arts Multimedia - Journalism Track

School of Media and Design

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Communication Arts at the School of Media and Design uses a unique blend of theory-driven and experienced-based classes where students acquire the knowledge and skills necessary.

The program offers multiple concentrations with seemingly infinite career opportunities. The Multimedia concentration includes three tracks. The Journalism track consists of on-air broadcasting experience, writing for publications and radio practicum.

The goals of the program are to cultivate students imagination and creativity through mastery of technical skills needed to become effective professionals in the field of communications; to create an environment fostering the exploration of diverse perspectives and encourages students to use their skills and resources to serve their community and society, so that they are prepared to participate competently, confidently, and ethically as concerned and enlightened citizens.

PREREQUISITES AND COURSES

The requirements for admission to the BA in Communication Arts program are the same as the requirements for admission to the University of the Incarnate Word.
