GVI Mission

Connecting talented students to solve real-world organizational challenges related to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) gives them a platform to develop professionally and personally and become global leaders with the know-how to successfully navigate in a multicultural environment.

Students will work on projects related to the following SDGs:

What to Expect

Small student teams from across the globe will be assigned to a SDG-related project with a partner from the Global Learning Collective network. These partners are located in Asia, Africa, Europe, and South America. UIW's Global Virtual Internship is structured to allow students to practice developing policy, exchanging ideas, and exploring strategies as a team.

After this 8-week program, students will have:

- Built a global network of professionals, students and leaders in different sectors;
- Examined their own strengths, weaknesses, values and beliefs in the international environment;
- Developed key professional skills for an international work environment, such as independent work ethic, cross-cultural collaboration, appreciation of diversity, and intercultural communication skills;
- Navigated remote business relationships and to work on a virtual team.
